

	WHO WE ARE	WHERE WE ARE IN PLACE IN TIME	HOW WE EXPRESS OURSELVES	HOW THE WORLD WORKS	HOW WE ORGANIZE OURSELVES	SHARING THE PLANET
NURSERY	Family relationships contribute to shaping our identity.		We express our feelings and ideas through play		People play different roles in the communities to which they belong.	Animals and people interact in different ways in different contexts.
JUNIOR KINDER	People's relationships with each other can have an impact on well-being		Stories can engage their audience and communicate meaning	Materials behave and interact in certain ways, which determine how people use them		Plants sustain life on Earth and play a role in our lives
KINDER	Awareness of our characteristics, abilities and interests informs our learning and development	Homes reflect cultural influences and local conditions	Celebrations and traditions are expressions of shared belief and values	All living things go through a process of change
GRADE 1	The choices people make affect their health and well-being	Learning about previous generations helps us understand the relationship between the past and the present	Images communicate ideas and information	People apply their understanding of forces and energy to invent and create	Physical and virtual public spaces provide people with opportunities to make connections and establish a sense of community	People can make choices to support the sustainability of the Earth's resources
GRADE 2	Choices of role models reflect the beliefs and values of individuals and societies	The Earth's physical geography has an impact on human interactions and settlements	Through the arts people use different forms of expression to convey their uniqueness as human beings	The design of buildings and structures is dependent upon environmental factors, human ingenuity and available materials	People create organizations to solve problems and human endeavor and enterprise	When interacting with natural habitats, humans make choices that have an impact on other living things
GRADE 3	The effective interactions between human body systems contribute to health and survival	A community's response to significant events provides an insight into the history and values of that community	People can create or manipulate messages to target specific audiences	Changes in the Earth and its atmosphere have impacts on the way people live their lives	Signs and symbols are part of human-made systems that facilitate local and global communication	Distribution of wealth affects communities and individual's access to equal opportunities
GRADE 4	Systems that define beliefs and values offer explanations about the world around us and what it means to be human	Exploration leads to discoveries, opportunities and new understandings	Throughout history, people have interacted with each other and communicated using arts	Energy may be converted, transformed and used to support human progress	New digital media changes the way in which people access information and connect to each other	Children worldwide encounter a range of challenges, risks and opportunities
GRADE 5	Changes people experience at different stages of their lives affect their evolving sense of self	Evidence of past civilizations can be used to make connections to present-day societies	Creating and responding to art develops understanding of ourselves and the world around us	Natural materials can undergo changes that may provide challenges and benefits for society and environment	Economic activity relies on systems of production, exchange and consumption of goods and services	Reaching a resolution during periods or moments of conflict is influenced by the actions and reactions of all involved
GRADE 6	People's cultural background has an impact on their beliefs, values and actions	Human migration is a response to challenges, risks and opportunities	A person's behaviour and how they choose to present themselves project aspects of the identity	Understanding of scientific knowledge is constantly evolving and has an impact on people's lives	Government systems influence the lives of citizens	PYP Exhibition